11:30 am to 1:00 pm

OHM 4th Annual Fellowship Meeting

We have lots to celebrate and talk about as we begin our fourth successful year. The Board sure hopes you can attend!

The Book Club - November

We will read and discuss Atonement by Ian McEwan

A symphonic novel of love and war, childhood and class, guilt and forgiveness that provides all the satisfaction of a brilliant narrative and the provocation we have come to expect from the acclaimed Booker Prize-winning, internationally bestselling author. One of the New York Times's 100 Best Books of the 21st Century.

Open Hearts & Minds Fellowship Values

We believe in making the world a better place by treating each other well and working for the common good.

Within Ourselves

We work to become better, kinder, and more heart-centered people.

We value reason, critical thinking, intuition, and emotional awareness.

We treat ourselves with kindness, realizing we are not perfect.

Within Our Fellowship

We encourage growth and development in each other.

We nurture the human spirit through acceptance, forgiveness, kindness, and mercy.

We celebrate our joys and support one another in times of sorrow.

With Others

We believe in the potential for good in every person.

We support transparent governance, the democratic process, and freedom of conscience.

With the Earth and Our Future

We work for the common good and nurture our global community.

We are part of something much bigger than ourselves and recognize the miracles of everyday life.

We acknowledge the sacredness of the Earth and our responsibility to cherish and protect it for future generations.
