Rev. Rebecca Mattis speaking on "Spiritual Graffiti." This is a meditation on writing and witness, seeing and being seen. Since the invention of writing, people have been writing their names on walls; this quotidian fact has some beautiful spiritual implications. Making our mark is all at once a primordial, common, and profound behavior. Sometimes the witnessing of such marks illuminates hidden places in our minds and lightens our hearts. Come along with me as I wander and wonder about memory, expression, and the gift of seeing.
