Sun Oct 27

10:30 am - Fourth Sunday In-Person Service: Born-Again Pagan.

Steve Brooks will enlighten and entertain the Fellowship with his sermon, Born Again Pagan. With Halloween and Dia de los Muertos on the horizon, it's a perfect time to reflect on their roots as the Pagan New Year. The worship of nature is our oldest spiritual impulse, and these days, it might be just what we need to save our planet. Austin folksinger and UU Steve Brooks talks and sings about the Wiccan and Native American paths, and how he found out he was a Born-Again Pagan. Learn about the real old-time religion, and help God get in touch with his feminine side.

UUMUAC's 3rd Wednesday Vesper Service

Rev. Craig Moro speaking on 'Margin Notes'

Poet, teacher, and farmer Wendell Berry writes that, "If change is to come...it will have to come from the margins." Let's explore the power and possibility that can emerge from marginal persons, places, and situations—and ponder how the edge can become the center in ways that are sure to offend hard-line segregationists on both the right and the left! Open discussion will follow.

Open Hearts & Minds Fellowship Values
We believe in making the world a better place by treating each other well and working for the common good.

Within Ourselves

We work to become better, kinder, and more heart-centered people.

We value reason, critical thinking, intuition, and emotional awareness.

We treat ourselves with kindness, realizing we are not perfect.

Within Our Fellowship

We encourage growth and development in each other.

We nurture the human spirit through acceptance, forgiveness, kindness, and mercy.

We celebrate our joys and support one another in times of sorrow.

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼

We believe in the potential for good in every person.

We listen with compassion and encourage justice, equity, and cooperation in human relationships.

We support transparent governance, the democratic process, and freedom of conscience.

With the Earth and Our Future

We work for the common good and nurture our global community.

We are part of something much bigger than ourselves and recognize the miracles of everyday life.

We acknowledge the sacredness of the Earth and our responsibility to cherish and protect it for future generations.
